A SAVINGS BANK WITH A WORLD-WIDE REPUTATION.

It has been said that the foundation of every successful business is confidence.

Let the public once reach the conclusion that a merchant is honest, reliable and square and his trade grows—oftentimes the growth is phenomenal.

While this is true with reference to merchants, it is especially true with reference to Savings Banks.

It is said that there is nothing so cowardly as money; let the slightest breath of suspicion be raised in regard to the safety of money and it goes into hiding about as quick as you can say "Jack Robinson."

On the other hand, let the methods and characteristics of the managers of a carefully conducted Savings Bank become the subject of favorable discussion and money flows into its treasury from every quarter.

People first begin to talk about it on the street corners of the bank's home town, then the adjoining counties take up the discussion and before you know it, the good opinions concerning the bank are spread from county to county, from state to state and from country to country, until it encircles the globe.

An excellent example of this is the Hyde Park Savings Bank, whose growth for the first few years of its existence was very modest.

The bank commenced business in January, 1889; ten years thereafter, on the first day of January, 1899, its deposits were only $479,704.56, a less sum than it has gained in a single year since that time.

Ask almost any man of general information touching Vermont affairs today and he will tell you that the cause of the abnormal growth of the Hyde Park Bank has been the faith of the people in the painstaking care of that Bank in making its investments as well as in a firm belief in the excellent business ability and the cautious conservatism of its managers.

This reputation has spread until it has covered the country. There isn't a state in the Union that does not deposit money in the Hyde Park Savings Bank—indeed, it receives deposits from Alaska, the Philippine Islands, the Republics of Panama and Cuba, from the Canadian Provinces from Quebec on the east to Saskatchewan on the west and from China, India and Turkey.

All these have contributed to make the Hyde Park Savings Bank the largest Bank in the world in a country village.

The fact that not a dollar sent to the Hyde Park Bank by mail since it was organized in 1889 has ever been lost has undoubtedly contributed greatly to these far-away deposits of that Bank, and they have come to the Bank by check, postal or express money order and by registered letter.

The Hyde Park Bank pays 4 per cent compounded semi-annually and pays all taxes.

So far as the most careful scrutiny can determine, the bank does not own a dollar of doubtful paper among its entire assets.

"Safety first, safety last and safety all the time" has always been the motto of the Hyde Park Bank, and its books are always open to the most critical examination by any depositor.

If any information is desired upon any point connected with the Bank, either call upon or write to the Bank's President, Carroll S. Page, or the Treasurer, F. M. Culver, Hyde Park, Vermont, and a reply will be promptly forthcoming.

MRS. SOPHIA SMITH

Mrs. Sophia Smith, probably the oldest resident in this town, died in Glover at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Christie, on Saturday, Oct. 16, at 2 p. m., at the age of 97 years and nine months.

Mrs. Sophia Downer Smith was born in North Walden, Feb. 2, 1818. Her early childhood days were spent in Walden, but for some years previous to her marriage she resided in Manchester, N. H. and Lowell, Mass.

In 1838 she was united in marriage to Daniel S. Smith of Compton, P. Q., who died in 1878. Six daughters were born to them, three of whom are now deceased.

About fifty-seven years ago they moved to Stannard, in which place the deceased lived until 1887, when she came to Greensboro Bend, where she has since resided.

When about eighteen years of age she was converted and united with the Methodist church in Lowell, Mass.

She was a kind neighbor, an unselfish, devoted mother and a faithful consistent Christian. She had always enjoyed good health until about nine years ago, when her failing health necessitated the selling of her home since which time she has been tenderly cared for in the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Shurtleff of Greensboro Bend.

Last June she went to visit her daughter, Mrs. Christie in this place, expecting to return in a few days, but on account of ill health was unable to do so and she failed gradually until the end came. Her remains were taken to Greensboro Bend Sunday afternoon and the funeral was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Shurtleff, on Tuesday at 1 p. m., Rev. A. D. Simpson, pastor of the Methodist church officiating.

The beautiful flowers spoke of the esteem in which the deceased was held. The interment took place in the family lot in North Walden cemetery. She leaves to mourn her loss, three daughters, Mrs. Emma Christie of this place, who cared for her so tenderly in her last illness; Mrs. Georgianna Garfield of Stannard; Mrs. Melissa Shurtleff of Greensboro Bend; 11 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, besides many other relatives and friends.

With sympathy we chronicle the death of Gladys Mathews, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Matthews. The death occurred at the Hardwick hospital Oct. 24th. The funeral was held at the home of her parents on Wednesday of last week.

The first number of the lecture course was given by the Brewer Musical Entertainers at the town hall Friday evening. There was a good attendance but not as large as might have been expected if a thunder shower had not threatened early in the evening. Everyone seemed well pleased with the entertainment.

The Congregational church will observe Go-to-Church Sunday on Nov. 14th. It is desired that everybody go to church on this Sunday whether they have been in the habit of doing so or not. The Vigilance class of the Sunday school has the matter in charge and will probably extend to many invitations to attend church on Nov. 14.

There was much sympathy expressed for little Ralph Silver when he broke his leg again on the school grounds Thursday morning. It was only a few months ago that he broke the same leg at a point somewhat above the present break, which is near the ankle. There seems to be an unusual amount of rough play among the boys of our schools of late. This fact added to the fact that the school grounds have never been properly graded but the children must play over holes, stones and logs makes accidents almost unavoidable. It is the opinion of your correspondent that more accidents are to follow if there is not enough public spirit to properly grade the grounds around our new schoolhouse.

The Caspian Lake Grange held a meeting in their hall Thursday evening at which four candidates were given the first and second degrees by the regular officers of the Grange.

The candidates were Loretta and Robert Cassavah, Edith Libbey and Ruth Williams. After the degree the following program under the charge of Mrs. Ned Kaiser, was given: Music, male quartet, H. H. Haines, Guy Allen, Morris Goodrich and Charles Goodrich; reading Will Miller; discussion, "That the Average Farmer Encounters Greater Discouragement than one engaged in the Trades or a Profession." Led by Burt Cook and George Porter; music, piano and horn, Mr. and Mrs. Eastman; reading, Charles Miller; paper, "Is the Present Higher Education for Girls a Help or a Hindrance to them in Becoming Good Housekeepers." Mrs. Margaret Barrington; song, Pardon Allen; roll call of jokes, Fred Cassavah told of some small things that make for profit or loss on the farm. Mrs. A. E. Jackson told of some small things that make for profit or loss in the home.

Solo, Mrs. Wakefield. There were about 50 present and all reported an excellent time.
